

Waiting for You

Israel waited for so many years
For the Messiah, their Christ to appear
The heavens burst open with joy
On that night

Shepherds would marvel, and angels would sing,
Singing their songs of a long awaited King,
The One who banish the dark
And bring light

Christmas is more than a season of cheer;
The miracle can last all through the year
Our almighty God, our Messiah is here;
He is here, waiting for you

Wise men came searching,
They came from afar
Led by a dazzling heavenly star;
The Savior was born to a poor peasant girl

Angels continue to sing songs of joy,
Singing the praises of this Baby Boy,
For He would bring hope to a desperate world.

Christmas is more than a season of cheer;
The real miracle can last all through the year.
Our almighty God, our Messiah is here;
He is here, waiting for you.

The wait for a Savior is through
And now He is waiting for you;
Waiting to make your heart new,
And now you must choose,
What will you do?

Christmas is more than a season of cheer;
The real miracle can last all through the year.
Our almighty God, our Messiah is here;
He is here, waiting for you.

Our almighty God, the Messiah is here
He is here, waiting for you x 6
